

OYAMA ATTACKS AGAIN

JAPANESE COLUMNS MOVE.

Statement of Conference Between President Roosevelt and the Japanese and Russian Ambassadors.

St. Petersburg, June 14.—General Lénovitch in a despatch to the Emperor dated June 12, says: "The Japanese commenced an attack on June 9, advancing with a column composed of infantry, cavalry and mounted machine guns along the Mandchurian road. Another column consisting of infantry and artillery advanced simultaneously along the valley northward of the Mandchurian road and on June 10, occupied the hills on right bank of the Kud river, northward of the village of Lianghouchen and Katschichu."

Washington, June 14.—The following official statement regarding the conference between President Roosevelt and Count Cassini, Russian Ambassador, was issued at the White House:

"Ambassador Cassini has called to express the Russian government's account to President Roosevelt's proposition, and to state that they would appoint plenipotentiaries to meet plenipotentiaries of Japan to discuss the question of peace. The place of meeting is at present being discussed, president's efforts have been directed towards bringing the belligerents into amicable contact on the basis of a mutual agreement to consider terms of peace."

"This he accomplished finally today. It remains now for the belligerent powers to name their plenipotentiaries, and agree on a time and place for them to meet to discuss terms and negotiate a treaty of peace. These details are now under consideration with a bright prospect that such minor differences as may exist will be removed within a few days."

Conference of supreme importance were held today in Washington. The blue room of the White House was the scene, and President Roosevelt, Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, and Kogoro Takahira, the Japanese minister, were the principal conferees. The president has now unequivocal assurances from both Russia and Japan of the acceptance of his proposition that they enter on negotiations for peace. The president likewise is assured of the absolute sincerity of both governments in according to his suggestions.

Japan was the first of the two powers to indicate its acceptance of the president's proposition. The formal response to his note of Thursday last was received from the Japanese government on Saturday. Informal assurance of acceptance of the president's suggestion was received a little later from the Russian government.

But the assurance from St. Petersburg was not of an definite character as had been received from Tokio. Early today United States Ambassador Meyer, at St. Petersburg informed the American government that Russia had accepted the president's proposition, and would appoint plenipotentiaries with plenary powers to meet the plenipotentiaries of Japan. While satisfactory, the response was not in the same definite form as that of Japan. It had been the expectation of the president to publish to the world the replies of the governments to his notes, but under the circumstances this could not be done.

A few hours subsequent to the receipt of Ambassador Meyer's cablegram, Count Cassini made an appointment with President Roosevelt at 11 a.m. today. The president received him in the blue room of the White House. The ambassador in the conference that followed, presented verbally Russia's acceptance of the president's proposition for a conference to discuss peace terms. He had been instructed by the St. Petersburg government to convey to the president the willingness of Emperor

Nicholas to appoint the plenipotentiaries to meet representatives of the Emperor of Japan, to negotiate a treaty of peace. While the response of the Russian government was not reduced to writing, it was regarded for the time as sufficient for the negotiations.

Shortly after the official statement was made public, in addition to indicating the acceptance by the Russian government of President Roosevelt's proposition, Count Cassini informed the president of Russia's desire as to the place of meeting, and named those who would probably be delegates to represent the Russian Emperor. At the conclusion of the conference, the Count declined to discuss for publication the details of the interview with the president.

Minister Takahira had a conference with President Roosevelt today. The interview lasted thirty-five minutes. After the conference Minister Takahira walked to the executive offices, and held a brief talk with Secretary Loeb. It can be said that the place of meeting of the plenipotentiaries of the two governments has not been finally selected. In the arrangement of this detail, and others of like importance, President Roosevelt is acting as an intermediary between the two countries. Russia, through Ambassador Cassini, has indicated her preference for one place and Japan, through Minister Takahira, suggested another. It is intimated officially that an agreement on the place of holding the meeting may be determined in a few days.

It is known that neither Washington nor the battlefield in Manchuria was the selection of either Russia or Japan. Further than that information of a definite nature was withheld.

There is no suggestion that in the question of selection of the location of the peace conference President Roosevelt shall act as the arbiter. It is expected that the two governments principally interested will have no difficulty in reaching an agreement on that point, as Russia already has indicated informally that Japan's selection of a place would probably be satisfactory to Emperor Nicholas.

Official assurance is given that at present the response made by Japan to the president's identical note will not be made public from Washington in precise form, inasmuch as the Russian reply is not available in similar form.

As soon as arrangements are definitely completed, an armistice will be agreed upon, and the great armies in Manchuria will lower their arms pending the formal negotiations of a permanent treaty of peace.

FLEET WAS DEMORALIZED

Vladivostok, June 14.—Interviews, which the correspondent of the Associated Press has had with naval officers who survived the battle of the Sea of Japan, have developed a most sensational story of the Russian disaster. First of all, had the complete demoralization which followed the sinking of the flagship, and the wounding of Admiral Rojestvensky. It is explained that not a single officer of the fleet knew the commander-in-chief's plans.

The admirals of divisions knew no more than the sub-lieutenants and had to rely solely on the signals of the flagship.

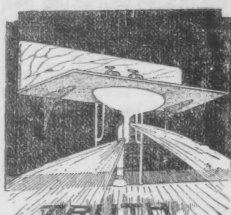

Admiral Nebogatoff, on whom the command devolved, has seen Rojestvensky only once since the juncture of their squadrons, and then only for fifteen minutes. All the stories of the largest practice in Madagascar it appears were false. During the entire voyage there was practically no training in gunnery worth the name, and the big gun practice was confined to three shots. Ugly stories are told of the happenings at Madagascar. Some of the crews certainly were untrained in gunnery, and exhausted by the eight months' voyage under trying moral and physical conditions, were no match for the valiant Japanese, whose marksmanship was wonderful. They concentrated their fire on one ship until she was placed out of action and then on another thus successively sinking the Oshaba, Alexander III., and the Kiaz Seavard.

Some ships developed deplorable structural defects; the Oshaba sank without having a single hole below the water line. Heavy seas entered the vessel above the water line and the water tight compartments which were changed several times during the voyage did not stand the strain they had been calculated to stand, and burst, and flooding the hull. The vessel turned turtle.

The lack of homogeneity among the ships made it impossible to maneuver in harmony. The Vladimir Monach, Admiral Oushakoff and Admiral Senavin, had to lag behind on this account and became easy victims.

Finally, the ammunition was exhausted after the first day's fighting. Even the very morning of the battle, while the buzzing of the wireless instruments on the Russian ships showed that the Japanese scouts were

THE SEALED BOOK

Under this heading the Regina Standard discusses municipal matters in the following free and easy manner: "The effort of Mayor Laird and his minions to make the assessment roll a sealed book, is by far the most marked attempt at high-handed tyranny ever tried in this western country. It looks a deliberate attempt to cover up crookedness. Under the law an assessment is confirmable if it is fairly proportionate to other assessments of similar property. A ratepayer cannot make the comparison without seeing the roll. He must not see it without he pays tribute to 'Caesar' Kelso Hunter at the rate of 25 cents per lot. In order to be accurate it may be necessary to go over the entire list of 20,000. At the end of the search he would owe fees to the amount of $5,000. It would not be necessary to go beyond ten or a dozen lots to find the most glaring inconsistencies in the present roll, but the average man does not care to be compelled to hand out two or three dollars to an already over-paid official.

"Last year Mayor Laird's business escaped taxation entirely, and one or two aldermen were assessed shamefully low—notably the chairman of finance. The refusal to show the roll is clearly an attempt to perpetuate that kind of thing on a larger scale. Is Alderman Balfour into it? At election time he expressed his disapproval of the rank injustice that some ratepayers suffered, and he promised to give all an open door for appeal. Instead of that open door we have the sealed book. We have given Mr. Balfour fair intimation that the public looks to him to redeem his pledge. Is he going to remain dumb? Speak out, Mr. Balfour, and speak soon!

"The Standard is going to keep this matter up if it takes all summer, or even longer. The task is not a congenial one. Some of the aldermen have made veiled threats against us, and have shown a disposition to free their innate meanness from restraint. We take a higher stand. We neither cherish enmity nor seek revenge. We always feel sorry for those into whom nature has infused an undue proportion of the leading characteristics of the snake, and failed (accidentally or design) to counterbalance them with the finer instincts of the real man.

"The council, or rather 'the majority of it, after fair warning, and with full knowledge of all the facts have shown a disposition to trample under foot the rights of the people. The people are not going to submit without protest. The Standard would be unworthy of the position it holds in the community if the threats of Alderman McEwen turned it for one moment from the path of duty. That gentleman does himself very scant justice when he foolishly gibbers about stones and glass houses. We will, however let that pass just now.

"What we are all interested in at present is the prosperity of our city. That cannot be maintained by the further toleration of a policy of graft, favoritism, official incompetence and silly threats. That policy has been pursued too long, and is doing us much injury. A very reputable business man, who is a ratepayer though not a resident, told the writer a short time ago that he would not open a peanut stand in Regina under present conditions of civic management. And it has been simply shown that one cannot open a peanut stand unless he stands in. When one or two aldermen who desire a better condition of affairs, make a move they are promptly and impudently told to 'mind their own business.' Their business as aldermen is to keep close watch upon every civic department, and to speak and act when necessary. Are they going to allow themselves to be snuffed out in that manner? Let the sealed book be opened!

The Herald Again

Calgary Herald: The men of Oxford and of London deliver their verdict on the autonomy bill tomorrow. That the Government realizes the peril in which its plans are placed by the opportunity afforded these sturdy English-speaking people of Ontario is emphasized by the number of cabinet ministers sent into those ridings to satisfy the people that the West is not being dealt with unfairly. Mr. Oliver and his compatriots realize that it is not Messrs. Gorgey, Pauzoye, Czagopce, et al., of the European colonies of the Edmonton district they are encountering in Ontario, but independent, liberal-minded people, who know how to think for themselves and resist coercion in every form.

At the Seat of War

Calgary Albertan: R. B. Bennett returned to Calgary yesterday morning. He was returning from Ontario where he created something of a sensation by proclaiming that the West was on the eve of a rebellion and that there would be a cannonade if certain things were not done.

When Mr. Bennett stepped off the train he was met by no sentry. As he walked up the streets of the city in the full hours of the morning, there were no enraged citizens training for battle. As he came down to his office yesterday morning he looked into the face of no cannon. All has been peaceful in this part that one would expect to be the headquarters of a revolution. And everything had been peaceful and quiet since Mr. Bennett left for the east. In fact, peace and quiet reigned here even when Mr. Bennett was with us. In a few days Mr. Bennett will learn that the only Alberta school question talk there has been here since he left for the east was a discussion of his absurdities and extravagant language and actions when in the East.

CANDIDATE FOR RED DEER

Alberta Advocate: At 5:30 p.m. on Thursday the following gentlemen waited on Mr. J. T. Moore at his residence, Gaetz Ave. The Mayor E. Michener, G. W. Smith, G. A. Love, R. B. Welliver, and N. E. Payne. The mayor introduced the deputation and read the following address:

Sir:—On behalf of the business men and citizens of the town and district of Red Deer whose names are attached to this requisition, we hereby request you to offer yourself as an independent non-partisan candidate for the forthcoming provincial Legislature.

We take this course as independent citizens, who are deeply concerned for the best interests of our constituency at this critical period, and because we believe you possess in an unusual degree those superior gifts which, combined with your unbounded energy and enthusiasm, will enable you to serve our community and district most effectively.

As members of the Conservative and Liberal parties respectively, we find ourselves able to co-operate in this way because we are firmly convinced that the time is not ripe for the introduction of party politics into our provincial affairs, and because of the frank and satisfactory assurance you have been good enough to place on record to the non-partisan course you will pursue.

We therefore beg to pledge to you our united and hearty support if you find yourself able to comply with this requisition.

Over 100,000 of these machines have been sold in the U.S. within the last few years at the same price which is being charged for any other standard typewriter. This proves conclusively that the OLIVER is the very best machine made regardless of price.

As there is now in Montreal a factory devoted exclusively to the manufacture of this machine, it can be bought in Canada for the same price at which it is sold in the U.S. without adding from $25 to $30 to cover duty and charges, as do all the other standard writers.

MCMASTER BAND OPEN THE CAMPAIGN

The opening service of the McMaster band last evening in the Presbyterian church was largely attended. Notwithstanding the disagreeable weather and still more disagreeable walking, the spacious auditorium was well filled by those glad to give welcome to the band of earnest, practical, energetic young men, who have been so successful in the work to which they are for a time devoting themselves.

As the leader announced the band is not a ministerial organization, but has in its number beside those who are looking forward to life work as preachers, those who will enter medicine, law and the teaching profession. No lengthy sermon or discourse is attempted, but a number of brief addresses and benefit those who listen, and power that cannot fail to inter-act and counts (Mr. Cotts is the leader of the band). They were an enunciation of the policy of the band. They preached not creed nor church, but Christ as the Savior of men.

Not less attractive than the speaking is the singing. The quartette in the three numbers rendered last evening won favor with the audience by the expressive and appealing way in which they sang their invitations.

A mass meeting for girls between the ages of twelve and fourteen was announced for this afternoon at four o'clock. This meeting will be addressed by Mr. Mitchell, a member of the band, who has had marked success in dealing with young people.

Judging from the size of the audience last evening and the impression made, it will tax the large auditorium to accommodate those who will seek the opportunity of hearing these young men from night to night.

CHURCH SOCIAL CLUBS

Editor Bulletin:

A note with pleasure the endeavors now being made in town to establish a Y.M.C.A. and when once it is started the town should have cause to congratulate itself for taking a decided step in the direction of moral improvement, a subject which I notice was ably dealt with by one of our ministers not long ago.

For my part I see no reason why each church should not have a Y. M. C. A. on a small scale. The sooner ministers learn that preaching alone will not make moral Christians, the better. True, there are very few young men or women in this town who are not church goers, but most of them go because it is fashionable, or because they have nothing else to do.

By taking as an example the methods of the Y.M.C.A., it should not be difficult for each church to establish a social club, the members of which could elect their own officers and charge a small fee for management and running expenses. Like the Y.M.C.A. it should be kept free of religion as a form.

Large numbers of young men are daily coming in and with no places of clean recreation to spend their spare time in, is it any wonder they seek the poolrooms or get flayed by playing cards?

Would it not be a good plan for our ministers regardless of creed, to get together on these points? They would thus be doing far more for the young generation than by simply telling us of the wrong-doing from the pulpit.

YOUNG 'UN.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION FORMED

A well-attended meeting of young men was held in the lecture room of McDougall church last evening for the purpose of organizing an athletic association. The following officers were elected:

Hon. President—Rev. C. H. Huestis.

President—C. E. Race.
Sec.-Treas.—E. A. Froude.
Baseball and probably other teams will be organized in connection with the association.

THREE YEARS OLD

WHEN the tobacco I have personally selected in Cuba is delivered at my factory, I begin a special treatment to still further cure it—develop its delightful aroma.

This special treatment requires two to three years, depending on the "crop."

I work it thoroughly—through various processes of fermenting and drying in specially made apparatuses that enable me to keep the tobacco in each process at certain fixed temperatures and moist or dry at such a degree of humidity—necessary to bring out the virtues I insist on in each cigar.

By having the filler so aged and treated, I make my Pharaoh a smooth, palatable smoke—one with a delicate incense-like flavor and very even combustion.

The binder and wrapper are the Connecticut Broadleaf and the imported Sumatra respectively—both tobaccos that delight the epicure.

CURING THE FILLER

THE Pharaoh filler I select in Manicaragua—Province of Santa Clara, Cuba, is generally harvested in February.

The plants are cut down at daybreak—allowed to remain until eleven o'clock in the morning—until they are properly wilted—then taken to curing houses for drying.

After they are thoroughly dried they are allowed to become moist through atmospheric humidity and then made into "hands." Four of these hands constitute a carat, eighty carats make a bale.

After allowing it to age for three full years, in order to develop its superb fragrance and aroma, I make it up into "Pharaoh."

That's why there is a taste and odor of genuine tobacco in any Pharaoh Cigar.

EARN A Comfortable Living WITH A Chatham Incubator

Poultry raising with a Chatham Incubator is a very profitable and easily managed occupation. Unless you want to go into it extensively it need take but very little of your time. Government reports show that the demand for chickens in Canada is greatly in excess of the supply and Great Britain is always clamoring for more. That means a steady market and good prices for chickens.

You cannot raise chickens successfully with a setting hen. She is wasting time setting when she should be laying. While she is hatching and brooding a few chickens she could be laying five or six dozen eggs. The percentage of chickens she hatches is much less than that produced by the Chatham Incubator.

It will pay you to own a Chatham Incubator. Chatham Incubators contain every improvement of importance in incubator construction that has been produced. They are made of thoroughly seasoned wood, with two walls, case within case. Between these walls mineral wool is packed forming the very best insulation. Each piece of the case is mortised and grooved and screwed, making the whole as solid as a rock. Chatham Incubators are equipped with scientifically perfect regulators which are an infallible means of regulating the temperature.

No cash to pay until October, 1905.

We will start you raising poultry for profit with a Chatham Incubator without one cent of money from you until next Fall. That means that you can take off seven or eight hatches and make considerable money out of the incubator before the first payment becomes due.

We couldn't make this offer if we were not certain that if you accept it you will get complete satisfaction, if we were not positive that the Chatham Incubator will pay you a handsome yearly income.

This is a straightforward offer. We make it to show you our supreme confidence in the Chatham Incubator. We want you to accept this offer as we are sure of the satisfaction our Incubator will give. Every machine we have put out so far has made other sales in the same neighborhood.

Our offer is to send you a Chatham Incubator at once, freight prepaid by us without one cent of cash from you. You make your first payment in October, 1905. The balance to be paid in October, 1906, or if a Cash Buyer you get it cheaper. Could any offer be fairer or more generous?

Write us to-day for full particulars of our offer and mention this paper. Don't put it aside for another time as this special proposition may be withdrawn at any time.

communicating their disposition to Admiral Togo. Admiral Rojestvensky continued his ceaseless maneuvering, and when the Japanese appeared the Russians were caught in an impossible formation.

Rojestvensky's position was cramped, and his transports were badly placed and caused confusion. While the Japanese were raining in projectiles, even from machine guns, on the Russian ships, the latter were huddled together, blanketing each other's fire. Only the leaders of the columns could bring their guns to bear, and even those the untrained gunners fired wildly.

CHINAMEN IN COURT

An unusual and not uninteresting scene took place at police court on Tuesday evening when the oath was administered to Wing Lee, according to the rites and rules of the Chinese Empire. Wing is the plaintiff in an action against Wong Foo, another Chinaman, charging him with stealing $295. According to Wing's story he went into partnership with Wong in the Newfoundland restaurant. The institution was run for about two years, and all Wing got for dividends when he inquired after matters financial was the information that the enterprise was not in a remunerative vein and was in debt to J. H. Morris & Co. Wing, however, claims to have located a cache of some $500, part of which, he suspected, belonged to himself. He accordingly employed Mr. A. McNichol to audit the books. The auditor ascertained that the sum of $295 was due Wing Lee from the business and this gentleman has accordingly charged Wong Foo with appropriating this amount. The case has been adjourned several times and, as many of the witnesses are Chinamen whose evidence may be taken only via an interpreter, the matter may not be settled for some time yet.

In all, there were about twenty-five Chinamen in the court room on Tuesday evening, when Wing Lee was obligated to tell the truth. The ceremony was unique and apparently impressive to the men from the Far East, though it hardly impresses a Westerner in the same manner. A series of hieroglyphics, alleged to have been a Chinese declaration somewhat similar in meaning and intent to the ordinary oath was inscribed on a slip of paper. A rooster was then produced and killed by decapitation. The paper was then burned and Wing proceeded with his story. The "oath" is said to be a declaration that if he speaks falsely the witness is willing to die after the manner of the unfortunate fowl.

The case will be resumed at 7.30 this evening when several other Chinamen will give evidence.

What is His Object?

A subscriber to The Regina Leader comments as follows in a letter upon Mr. Haultain's "Toronto News" interview on the subject of the education clause:

"It is remarkable for the ingenious manner in which all the possible privileges which may be given to Roman Catholics by the Assembly (these are our provincial rights) are represented as being given to them by the autonomy bills. Because the province may exercise its autonomy to grant privileges which are not provided in the bills, Mr. Haultain seeks to show that the bills are responsible. He specifically aims at destroying Sifton's arguments, and never from any public man have I heard such glaring misrepresentation. No friends of Canada or the west would at this moment enter upon such a task. The best and truest men of the nation are seeking to bind up the wounds. With Ontario at fever-heat of fanned righteous rage, but real intolerance, such as I can quite understand and appreciate but with which I have not one grain of sympathy, for a leading public man of the west to make such inflammatory and unjustifiable statements is little short of treason to Canada, and an insult to the broad tolerance of the North-West. Nothing but harm can come of the misleading views which the Ontario populace will gain from the flaming headlines, backed by the authority of the man holding the title of Prime Minister of the Territories."

The correspondent makes use of pretty savage language in his criticism of Mr. Haultain, and in our opinion the language is only too well deserved. Mr. Haultain has deteriorated into an agitator and demagogue of the worst type. Ontario was already confused and misled and violent by reason of sectarian appeals based upon a mistaken impression, and instead of using his position and influence and knowledge properly and with a good purpose to eradicate error and promote peace, Mr. Haultain deliberately sought by flagrant misrepresentation, by raising more doubts, by making worse confusion when he could have remedied the confusion, and by trying to further mislead the Ontario people when he could have corrected their erroneous information, — to provoke more violent passion and disturbance. The bills guarantee to minorities no more privileges than are in practice and actually enjoyed under our ordinances. The utmost limit and extent of "the right and privilege with respect to separate schools which any class of persons have by law" and which must not be "prejudicially affected" by laws passed within the exclusive jurisdiction of the province, are specifically defined to be such "right or privilege as exists under the terms of Chapters 29 and 39 of the Ordinances of the N.W.T., 1901." The old North-West Territories Act with its separate school clause is repealed. The Ordinances provide specifically for public control of the separate school just as full and complete as they provide for public control of the public school; in fact as regards government control and management of the public and separate schools no distinction is made. If the province wishes to let the Roman Catholic church or any Protestant church manage Roman Catholic or Protestant separate schools the province will certainly be free (it will have the autonomy) to do so. But the provincial charter which Laurier is granting will not compel the province to allow any church to exercise any lot of control in any school, because no church possesses any such right or privilege under the Ordinances specified in the bill. Ordinance No. 29 gives the Commissioner of Education through his Department, the "control and management of all kindergarten schools, normal schools, teachers' institutes, and the education of the deaf, dumb and blind persons," and another clause makes separate school districts and boards "subject to the same liabilities and methods as is provided for public schools." These provisions of the ordinances which embody the limit of the separate school right or privilege to be possessed under Saskatchewan's charter simply place beyond any possibility of doubt or shadow of suspension the measure of autonomy as regards education to be possessed by the province. No church or any other public body or organization can lay a title of claim to any vestige of right to insert a finger upon or in the control of any school, separate or public. We are getting a charter under which there is to be public control of schools in perfectly absolute degree. Mr. Sifton — whose antagonism to church control is so strong that he threw up his portfolio because he saw it in the original bill — supports the present bill; he knows that under the present bill state control is securely safeguarded. Mr. Fitzpatrick admits that the new section 16 leaves no vestige of chance for church control. Mr. Monk and Mr. Bergeron know that state control is provided and support the bill, the one heartily in spite of it, and the other reluctantly because of it. The North-West people know it, and knowing it they refuse to be agitated over the separate school question. If Ontario knew the actual facts that province would not be agitated. But instead of helping them to know the actual facts, Mr. Haultain has done his utmost regardless of the facts, to lead Ontario to believe that the autonomy measures provide for church control of schools. More utterly reprehensible and unworthy conduct has never been exhibited by a public man in Canada. He has permitted partisanship to lead him into the petty arts of the demagogue and agitator not upon a small matter but upon an occasion and a subject of critical and momentous importance. That Moose Jaw convention, which even its engineers are now trying to repudiate, in "spanking" Mr. Haultain into submission" seems to have utterly demoralized a man who before that disastrous event was to all appearances sensible and honest and who had made an excellent and enviable record. He has never been the same Haultain since. Imagine the old Haultain for petty partisan purposes refusing to use $250,000 for badly needed roads and bridges. It is plain now that in refusing the capital advance he has lost $250,000 — that item would not have been charged against us in the autonomy settlement; regardless of the three million odd dollars that stood in the accounts against us we are being started with a clean slate and the $250,000 would certainly have been treated in the same way. Imagine the old Haultain getting the North West members to work for him as he did in 1903 and then using that very work to knife them with, as he tried to do with Oliver and Scott last fall. Imagine the old Haultain, in face of his own demand for perpetuation of our school system, denouncing legislation which provided exactly what he demanded. It is those who confided in and admired the old Haultain, who most bitterly realize his demoralization and humiliation. He sinned against the light. With his eyes open he sacrificed himself and his friends. Nobody knew better than himself that Mr. Bennett, Dr. Patrick and Dr. Cowan were his enemies and that they organized the Moose Jaw Convention for his undoing. Their success has exceeded their most sanguine hopes.

HOT AIR FURNACES

If you have any idea of heating your house with hot air, it will pay you to look into the

"PEASE."

This Furnace is considered one of the very best made, and when installed by a first class mechanic is sure to give satisfaction. Ross Bros. are the sole agents for this district, and they employ none but the best workmen, as some of the following testimonials from some of our best known citizens should convince you. We have a large number of these testimonials, every one of which is from gentlemen who have used the PEASE FURNACE.

We put a large number in Edmonton during last year, and in every instance the purchasers were well pleased, and do not hesitate to speak in the highest terms of them.

TESTIMONIALS.

Sole Agents for Edmonton ROSS, BROS. Limited.

Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

The hot air heating system that you installed in my house last summer, and which has been thoroughly tested during the past winter, has given me splendid satisfaction. All parts of my house, which are in an exposed position on the crest of the river bank, were comfortably heated at all times. The coal consumed during the winter was not large, and it burns the Edmonton coal perfectly. I am very well satisfied with the heating system, and the workmanship and the material used on the job is of the best, and would recommend your furnace to any one.

Yours truly,
MALCOLM Groat.

Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

Replying to yours re the furnace I purchased from you and which your workmen put in my store (The Hudson Bay Store) I am well satisfied with it. The store is 35 x 40, with a 16 foot ceiling, plate glass front, and when the thermometer stood at 22 below zero the store was easily heated to 90 degrees. The workmanship is first class in every particular. The fuel consumed is small considering the results we get. There is no smoke or leakage of gas, and the furnace is very easily managed. I can heartily recommend your furnace to any intending purchaser, as I am sure there can be no fault found with them.

Yours truly,
JAMES H. WOOD.

Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

Regarding the warm air furnace which you installed in my house. I may say that I am perfectly satisfied with it. I had no difficulty whatever in heating the whole house in all kinds of weather. No heat is wasted in the cellar, and I had no trouble with the pipes not working in windy weather. I find it easy to manage, and economical on fuel, and were I to build again, I would have no other kind of furnace, and I would recommend it to any person wanting one.

Yours truly,
W. H. COOPER.

Ross Bros., Limited,
Gentlemen:—

The furnace you placed in my house last year has given us the very best of satisfaction, and every room in the house is evenly heated, and I find that it burns the Edmonton coal very economically, and is easy to manage and free from dust or gas. I would cheerfully recommend it to anyone.

Yours truly,
KING POWELL.

Ross Bros., Limited,
Gentlemen:—

The Furnace you placed in the house I live in (owned by J. N. Pomersley) has given us perfect satisfaction. In fact we can make it too warm to live in if we were to let the furnace burn freely, and have never been troubled with either smoke, gas or dust. I find it very easy to manage, and I am certain we could not keep the house as comfortable with stoves on anything like the same amount of fuel, and would recommend it to any person wanting a good Furnace.

Yours truly,
J. B. MERCER.

Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

After using your Furnace all winter it gives me great pleasure to recommend it to any one. I used another make of Furnace for four years in the same house, previous to getting this furnace from you, and find your Furnace a great improvement over the old one. I find it free from dust, gas or smoke, and easy to manage, and that the grate burns the Edmonton coal perfectly. My house is more evenly heated with only a little over half the fuel, and I might say that the material and workmanship in connection with the installation of the Furnace is of the best.

Yours truly,
R. J. MANSON.

Messrs. Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

The Furnace you installed in my house last summer has given me perfect satisfaction in every respect, and free from gas or dust, and find that I get more heat from less fuel out of your Furnace than I could from the old Furnace you took out. Therefore would cheerfully recommend your Furnace to any person wanting one.

Yours truly,
C. W. CROSS.

Ross Bros.,
Gentlemen:—

The hot air heating system that you installed in my hotel, has proved to be all and more than you represented it to be, and would not change it for the old system if I had to pay double what it cost me, as I find your Furnace only uses about half the amount of coal that the old Furnace used. In fact one Furnace now heats the whole hotel, except in extreme cold weather, while it took both the old Furnaces going full blast all the time to heat the hotel other winters.

I find your furnace not only a fuel saver, but easy to manage, free from dust, smoke or gas, and would be pleased to recommend it to any person wanting one.

Yours truly,
J. J. MELLON, Strathcona.

YOUNG LIBERALS ORGAN-IZE

A meeting for the purpose of organizing a Young Men's Liberal Club was held in Gariepy Hall last evening. Every seat in the hall was occupied, the audience being composed almost entirely of young men who had previously taken but little part in active politics. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one and the utmost unanimity prevailed.

The meeting was called to order at 8.30 o'clock and Geo. B. McLeod and Jas. A. McKinnon appointed temporary chairman and secretary respectively. Mr. McLeod explained the steps taken which had led up to the calling of the meeting and then called on O. M. Biggar for an address. Mr. Biggar spoke at some length, and was listened to with the greatest interest. He dealt with the functions and objects of a Young Men's Liberal Club. His remarks were very instructive as well as interesting.

The roll was then signed by some one hundred young men present, after which the election of officers was proceeded with. This resulted as follows:

First Honorary President—Hon. Frank Oliver, Minister of the Interior.
Second Honorary President—Chas. W. Cross.
Honorary Vice-President—P. E. Lessard.
President—Geo. B. McLeod.
First vice president—Dr. O. F. Strong.
Second vice president—Jas. M. Thom.
Third vice president—Jno. Lavoie.
Secretary-treasurer—Jas. A. McKinnon.

Executive committee—O. M. Biggar, Wilfrid Gariepy, Gus. Lessard, John Paul, John Sommerville, Cecil Sutherland, Mike Gowda, T. J. McNamara, Roy Schanck, Jerry Chamberlain, Dan. McAfee, Jacob Mohr, Philip Singer, C. H. Gibson, Dag. McKinnon, Hugh Campbell, Herb Gardner, C. F. Race, M. Lipsey, Wm. Anderson, Jos. Kelly, M. Grant, J. D. McDowd, John Dunlop, C. E. Race and C. Ross Palmer, H. H. Hull.

Mr. Dwyer then gave a very enjoyable reading which was followed by short speeches from the officers-elect.

C. W. Cross was then called on and was received with enthusiasm. He dealt at considerable length with the aims and objects of a Young Liberal Club. Tracing the constitutional growth of the territories, he showed how deeply we are indebted to the Liberal party for our growth in self-governing powers. Mr. Cross took his seat amid applause.

The chairman briefly announced that a general meeting of the Young Liberals of the city would be held in Gariepy Hall on Wednesday evening, June 28 at 8 o'clock, after which the meeting adjourned.

MR. MORSE ENDORSES EDMONTON.

Mr. Frank W. Morse, Vice-President of the G.T.P., in a recent letter to the secretary of the board of trade says:—"Since my first visit to Edmonton district I have had the utmost confidence in its future success, and as expressed some time ago, think it would be a mistake to have the permanent capital any further south. While Edmonton may, to some people, appear a little far north at present, for the permanent capital, I am convinced that the district surrounding your city will fill up so rapidly, that it will, in a comparatively short time, be looked upon as the centre of population for the Province of Alberta."

THURSDAY

IS A SPECIAL DAY.

M. R. Miller & Co.

The Cream Separator that is the Cheapest in the End.

There are some folks who are everlastingly trying to get "something for nothing." They buy a wagon at a "bargain" price because the agent says it's "just as good." And then, after a few months, when the tires and spokes have all loosened up, they cuss the wagon.

Price not the only difference.

It's the same way with cream separators. You can buy many other separators for less money than the U. S. Cream Separator sells for, but before you've finished paying for the experiment you'll find price isn't the only difference. The cheaper separators soon get out of adjustment because built of cheaper material by inferior manufacturing methods; they consume twice the necessary amount of oil; they have a bowl that will not run true, and does not skim clean. The repairs in the first few years would pay the difference for the U. S. Cream Separator.

Durability is important.

The U. S. Cream Separator has stood the test of time. Many of them have been in use for 10 years, and cost less than a dollar for repairs. They run easy, skim cleaner than others, have a simple bowl, enclosed gears, and a convenient low supply can.

The Vermont Farm Machine Co., of Bellows Falls, Vt., have printed in a handsome booklet a few of the thousands of letters from satisfied users of the U. S. Cream Separator. This booklet will save you money when you buy a separator, and a post card will bring it to you.

To insure prompt deliveries and to save freight charges for their Canadian customers, they ship from their warehouses at Montreal, Sherbrooke, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Calgary and Vancouver, but all letters should be addressed to Bellows Falls, Vt.

A REMARKABLE STORY.
WOMAN TELLS OF HER FOUR-
TEEN YEARS OF SUFFERING.From Buffalo, N.Y., comes a startling story, illustrating how much suffering a woman can bear and yet live.
Mrs. H. J. Rehorn, 189 Landon St., that city, says:—

"Soon after the birth of my first child, 14 years ago, constipation became troublesome, and the various pills and medicines I used would give temporary relief, but gradually they seemed to lose their influence and the condition became worse. I must have used fully 50 different remedies.

"At times I would have no relief for food, and what I did eat would distress my stomach. Gas would form and rise, headache and restless sleep, bearing-down pain, backache, and gradually I began to recognize the loss of strength, easily tired, and never feeling fully rested.

"My husband brought me home a bottle of a new medicine called Anti-Pill and from the first I began to improve. My appetite was better and what I ate did not make me feel uncomfortable. Anti-Pill is mild and gentle in its action, and yet it cured my terribly obstinate constipation and made me feel so well.

Every Druggist sells this wonderful Anti-Pill that cured Mrs. Rehorn. 504
